Questions #8-13 refer to the article about psychosocial interventions for disruptive symptoms of dementia by Yuhas et al. on pages 34-42.

8. The percentage of adults age 85 and older who are affected by a dementing disorder is more than:
   A. 15%.
   B. 20%.
   C. 25%.
   D. 30%.

9. Nocturnal confusion and wandering are characteristic of which of these kinds of dementia?
   A. Alzheimer’s disease.
   B. Vascular dementia.
   C. Levy body dementia.
   D. Frontal temporal dementia.

10. Psychotic symptoms, such as paranoia, delusions, and hallucinations, are more likely in people with which of these kinds of dementia?
    A. Alzheimer’s disease.
    B. Vascular dementia.
    C. Levy body dementia.
    D. Frontal temporal dementia.

11. Uninhibited and socially inappropriate behavior is characteristic of which of these kinds of dementia?
    A. Alzheimer’s disease.
    B. Vascular dementia.
    C. Levy body dementia.
    D. Frontal temporal dementia.

12. Effective communication techniques for use with individuals with dementia include:
    A. avoiding “don’t” commands.
    B. using pronouns instead of nouns.
    C. asking questions that only require a yes or no answer.
    D. limiting eye contact.

13. Talking down to people who have vascular dementia may be particularly harmful to them because they:
    A. are at risk for strokes if they become stressed.
    B. become complacent if denigrated.
    C. are prone to violence when angered.
    D. may be aware of their deficits.

How to Obtain Contact Hours by Reading This Issue

Instructions
4.8 contact hours will be awarded by Vindico Medical Education upon successful completion of the posttest and evaluation. To obtain contact hours:

1. Read the articles carefully, noting the tables and other illustrative materials, which are provided to enhance your knowledge and understanding of the content.

2. Read each question and record your answer on the CE Registration Form provided.

3. Complete all sections of the CE Registration Form.

Forward the completed form with your check or money order, drawn on a US bank, for $16 (USD) made out to JPN-CE.

Contact Hours
Vindico Medical Education is an approved provider of continuing education by the New Jersey State Nurses Association, which is accredited as an approver of continuing education in nursing by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation, P188-S/2006-2009.

This activity is co-provided by Vindico Medical Education and the Journal of Psychosocial Nursing.

Questions #8-13 refer to the article about psychosocial interventions for disruptive symptoms of dementia by Yuhas et al. on pages 34-42.

Objectives
1. Evaluate the use of psychotherapy with older adults.

2. Assess psychosocial interventions for disruptive symptoms of dementia.

3. Analyze information about elder abuse and neglect.

Instructions
4.8 contact hours will be awarded by Vindico Medical Education upon successful completion of the posttest and evaluation. To obtain contact hours:

1. Read the articles carefully, noting the tables and other illustrative materials, which are provided to enhance your knowledge and understanding of the content.

2. Read each question and record your answer on the CE Registration Form provided.

3. Complete all sections of the CE Registration Form.

Forward the completed form with your check or money order, drawn on a US bank, for $16 (USD) made out to JPN-CE.

Contact Hours
Vindico Medical Education is an approved provider of continuing education by the New Jersey State Nurses Association, which is accredited as an approver of continuing education in nursing by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation, P188-S/2006-2009.

This activity is co-provided by Vindico Medical Education and the Journal of Psychosocial Nursing.

Questions #8-13 refer to the article about psychosocial interventions for disruptive symptoms of dementia by Yuhas et al. on pages 34-42.

Objectives
1. Evaluate the use of psychotherapy with older adults.

2. Assess psychosocial interventions for disruptive symptoms of dementia.

3. Analyze information about elder abuse and neglect.

Instructions
4.8 contact hours will be awarded by Vindico Medical Education upon successful completion of the posttest and evaluation. To obtain contact hours:

1. Read the articles carefully, noting the tables and other illustrative materials, which are provided to enhance your knowledge and understanding of the content.

2. Read each question and record your answer on the CE Registration Form provided.

3. Complete all sections of the CE Registration Form.

Forward the completed form with your check or money order, drawn on a US bank, for $16 (USD) made out to JPN-CE.

Contact Hours
Vindico Medical Education is an approved provider of continuing education by the New Jersey State Nurses Association, which is accredited as an approver of continuing education in nursing by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation, P188-S/2006-2009.

This activity is co-provided by Vindico Medical Education and the Journal of Psychosocial Nursing.

Objectives
1. Evaluate the use of psychotherapy with older adults.

2. Assess psychosocial interventions for disruptive symptoms of dementia.

3. Analyze information about elder abuse and neglect.

Instructions
4.8 contact hours will be awarded by Vindico Medical Education upon successful completion of the posttest and evaluation. To obtain contact hours:

1. Read the articles carefully, noting the tables and other illustrative materials, which are provided to enhance your knowledge and understanding of the content.

2. Read each question and record your answer on the CE Registration Form provided.

3. Complete all sections of the CE Registration Form.

Forward the completed form with your check or money order, drawn on a US bank, for $16 (USD) made out to JPN-CE.

Contact Hours
Vindico Medical Education is an approved provider of continuing education by the New Jersey State Nurses Association, which is accredited as an approver of continuing education in nursing by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation, P188-S/2006-2009.

This activity is co-provided by Vindico Medical Education and the Journal of Psychosocial Nursing.

Objectives
1. Evaluate the use of psychotherapy with older adults.

2. Assess psychosocial interventions for disruptive symptoms of dementia.

3. Analyze information about elder abuse and neglect.

Instructions
4.8 contact hours will be awarded by Vindico Medical Education upon successful completion of the posttest and evaluation. To obtain contact hours:

1. Read the articles carefully, noting the tables and other illustrative materials, which are provided to enhance your knowledge and understanding of the content.

2. Read each question and record your answer on the CE Registration Form provided.

3. Complete all sections of the CE Registration Form.

Forward the completed form with your check or money order, drawn on a US bank, for $16 (USD) made out to JPN-CE.

Contact Hours
Vindico Medical Education is an approved provider of continuing education by the New Jersey State Nurses Association, which is accredited as an approver of continuing education in nursing by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation, P188-S/2006-2009.

This activity is co-provided by Vindico Medical Education and the Journal of Psychosocial Nursing.

Objectives
1. Evaluate the use of psychotherapy with older adults.

2. Assess psychosocial interventions for disruptive symptoms of dementia.

3. Analyze information about elder abuse and neglect.

Instructions
4.8 contact hours will be awarded by Vindico Medical Education upon successful completion of the posttest and evaluation. To obtain contact hours:

1. Read the articles carefully, noting the tables and other illustrative materials, which are provided to enhance your knowledge and understanding of the content.

2. Read each question and record your answer on the CE Registration Form provided.

3. Complete all sections of the CE Registration Form.

Forward the completed form with your check or money order, drawn on a US bank, for $16 (USD) made out to JPN-CE.

Contact Hours
Vindico Medical Education is an approved provider of continuing education by the New Jersey State Nurses Association, which is accredited as an approver of continuing education in nursing by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation, P188-S/2006-2009.

This activity is co-provided by Vindico Medical Education and the Journal of Psychosocial Nursing.
Questions #14-20 refer to the article about elder abuse and neglect by Muehlbauer and Crane on pages 43-48.

14. Which of these organizations published recommendations for preventing maltreatment of older adults in institutions in 1986?
   A. United States House of Representatives Select Committee on Aging.
   B. Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations.
   C. Institute of Medicine.
   D. American Medical Association.

15. Approximately ________ million adults older than age 60 are abused annually in the United States.
   A. One fourth to one half.
   B. One to two.
   C. Three to four.
   D. Five to six.

16. The theory of elder abuse that asserts that violence is a learned behavior is:
   A. transgenerational.
   B. situational.
   C. psychopathology.
   D. political economic.

17. Ninety percent of perpetrators of elder abuse are reported to be:
   A. friends.
   B. family members.
   C. assistive health personnel.
   D. other patients.

18. The theory of elder abuse that supports the idea that the greater the burden on caregivers, the more likely they are to abuse older adults is:
   A. transgenerational.
   B. situational.
   C. psychopathology.
   D. political economic.

19. Dementia is common in what percentage of residents of long-term care facilities?
   A. 20%.
   B. 30%.
   C. 40%.
   D. 50%.

20. According to the Nursing Home Reform Act of 1987, the rights of nursing home residents include three of the following. Which one is the EXCEPTION?
   A. The right of protection against Medicaid discrimination.
   B. The right to participate in health care decisions and to give or withhold informed consent for particular interventions.
   C. The right to financial assistance for care under Medicare.
   D. The right for provisions to ensure proper transfers or discharges.